WASHINGTON, D. C., NOVEMBER 6, 1914.

NUMBER 6.

In Regard to Belgian Relief.

It is with particular gratitude that the Hatchet editors note the ready response of those members and friends of the University who have answered the call for assistance in the aid of the Belgians. There are many, however, who have not contributed, and to them we would say just a word.

In any time of great distress, it is to be expected that those people who have the greatest appreciation of conditions will be those who have the most sympathy. There is no body of people more enlightened in regard to the present conditions across the water than college people. Therefore we make our humanitarian appeal to college people.

If it were your mother or your child who was trudging the frozen roads with not enough clothing to keep out the cold; if it were your sister who had had nothing to eat for three days; if these conditions were extant here in our own city of Washington, you would hasten to help. Let it not be said that college people, separated from this condition by a stretch of water, are less charitable than at home; may it not be said that, because these people are of another nation, we will deny our reputation as a country of good works. Rather let us join hands with the other college people of the country in this noble cause and prove ourselves worthy of the country which gave us birth. In this connection it may be said that the University of Kansas has already contributed toward this work $200.00 and Yale University $1500.00.

BASKETBALL MATERIAL PRONOUNCED EXCELLENT.

Outlook After First Practice Very Promising.

SEVENTEEN MEN REPORT.

Seventeen men, including four members of last year's varsity quint, turned out for initial basketball practice at the National Guard gymnasium Monday night and were put through a brisk workout by Coach "Schlitz" Schlosser. There was a lot of promising new material and the candidates for the 1914 five went through their paces so well that the peppery coach whom the alliterators link with the well known Milwaukee beverage was enthusiastic at the end of the session.

"It looks mighty good to me," said Schlosser. This sentiment was echoed by Manager Tom Murray, one of the stars of last year's regular team, who sat on the sidelines and watched the practice. Professor McNemar, the man who picked up the cold corpse of athletics at George Washington and stood it upon its feet, expressed the opinion that with a trio like Coach Schlosser, Captain Shaver and Manager Murray working in unison, the buff and blue will this year be able to build up a basketball machine that will be hard to beat.

It may be that some of the letter men will be jostled from their places by new aspirants. At least three of the new men made a most favorable impression on those who watched Monday night's practice. Alton A. Gladden, who played on the St. John's College team, showed good form, while James Bryant, a diminutive star from Battle Creek (Mich.) High, also showed a lot of class. Frank Chamberlain of the Potomac Boat club worked smoothly and mechanically. Frank Hoppe, the Y. M. C. A. wizard, is going to turn out for the team, but was unable to get out to the opening practice. Shaver, Hamner and "Dr." Groesbeck of last year's roster are not going to be easily dislodged, as was demonstrated Monday night, but there are very promising candidates for their positions ready to step into the lineup if they falter.

Those who turned out for practice Monday night were Alton A. Gladden, St. John's College; Harry B. Gates, (Continued on page 3.)

Do you realize that today women and children are starving and freezing to death for the lack of the bare necessities of food and clothing? It seems almost impossible to comprehend surrounded as we are with so many comforts and removed more than three thousand miles from the scene but it is so, nevertheless. The daily newspapers are full of accounts of the dire sufferings of the refugees. These are not merely sensational stories. They are confirmed by reputable eye-witnesses. Professor Nevil Monroe Hopkins, of this University, had personal experiences on the field of conflict, tells of the great need for supplies of food and clothing. The inhabitants of Belgium have had their fair possessions ravaged by first one and then the other of the belligerent armies until now over six millions of them have no place that they can call home. Women and children have been forced to part, perhaps forever, with their husbands and fathers and flee somewhere, they know not where, to preserve their very lives. Unable to gather any crops from their lands even supposing any had been left standing by the armies, they are now in imminent danger of perishing by cold and hunger. Will you not, as college men and women, with all your advantages of the comforts and luxuries of existence and a liberal education, give some small amount to keep these cousins across the sea from starvation? Surely you will.

A meeting of the Freshman Class of Columbian College was called for Wednesday, November 4, for the purpose of appointing committees and developing plans for the annual Frosh Prom.

PAVE WAY FOR NEW SORORITY.

Group of University Girls to Petition Phi Mu.

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL APPROVES

A group of University girls has formed for the purpose of petitioning Phi Mu, a national sorority, for the establishment of a chapter at George Washington University. Permission for this step was granted by the President's Council at its meeting on Tuesday, November 3. Following is a list of the girls who have pledged to this petition: Anna Washington Craton, Letitia Southgate, Francis Evarts, Lina H. Fergusson, Catherine Heron, Priscilla B. Parsons, Rosalie O'Connor, and Eleanor Stanton.

Phi Mu is a national sorority, a member of the National Pan-Hellenic Congress, well represented in western and northern colleges, and of great strength in the South. It was organized at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia, in 1852. Wesleyan College, the oldest women's college in the United States, kept its doors open during the Civil War, and the traditions of this sorority are continuous during all these years. Its growth in the west and north is recent, but it is now represented by chapters in many prominent colleges. It has a chapter roll of twenty, a sorority of the average size. It is said that its scholastic standards are high and that its principles are conservative.

Among those who have signed up for the newly formed orchestra are the following prominent musicians: George Degnan, bones; John Brockwell, Victrola; Don McKnew, Jew's Harp; Tully Garner, comb; Tom Noonan, hand organ.

Speaking of the orchestra, there is a fine chance for some fellow to win his Varsity letter playing first bass.

Ramsey and John M. Jeffries was the business manager. Following is the report:

We are fully convinced that the Cherry Tree, as well as other student interests, would be more successful and have wider circulation were it not for the apathy prevailing among the larger part of the Faculty of the University. When we took up the work, we were keenly disappointed at not having the hearty co-operation of many of the professors. On the other hand, those who did help helped with a will, and to them we owe a large measure of gratitude.

THE CHERRY TREE.

In view of the report of the Editor of The Cherry Tree of 1914, published in another column of this paper, it would seem that the Faculty Committee on Student Organizations might be moved to reconsider its recommendation to the President's Council that in the future the Business Manager of the Cherry Tree be required to furnish bond in the sum of six hundred dollars. If this step should be at all necessary, it would be no more than proper that the University should bond the Business Manager itself. The Cherry Tree is one of the strongest advertisers of the University in existence; if, therefore, this be cut off, the University, as well as the students, is the loser. But on the other hand, it has been shown that the Cherry Tree can be and has been run without a deficit. To insure this, there is merely the matter of the University's taking sufficient interest in the matter to help in the selection of men with proper ability for the two main staff positions, and to co-operate readily with the managers. In this connection, it is worthy of note that the University should award two scholarships to The Cherry Tree. The men who put all their time and effort for a whole year into such an undertaking should be given such credit for it. If this were entirely impossible, credits in Journalism or some other subject would properly be given, as is now the case in many other Universities. The members of the Faculty should also take an interest in this movement and give their hearty assistance where possible to the managers.

student movements will find that if they take the time and trouble to organize widely and thoroughly throughout the University there will be little trouble in assuring themselves of the ultimate success of their object.

Thanking you for the interest and co-operation that you have accorded us, we are,

Very respectfully,

The opening game of the season will be played at the armory December 12. Loyola College, Baltimore, will furnish the opposition. There will be practice every Monday, Wednesday and Friday night until that time and it is expected that the team that is sent against the Baltimore boys will be the strongest that has ever represented George Washington. Manager Murray is working up an attractive schedule that he will be able to announce in a short time. It is believed that this year's G. W. quint will figure in some stirring athletic history, and with the achievement of the Boston Braves fresh in mind, it would be unsafe for anyone to place a limit on the possibilities of the team.

INTERFRATERNITY ASSOCIATION.

McNemar Explains Athletic Situation. Wheeler Elected President.

Ten fraternities were represented at the first meeting of the Interfraternity Association or the University held Wednesday evening, October 28, at the Sigma Phi Epsilon House, 1700 15th Street. The principal business of the evening was the election of officers for the coming year, which resulted as follows: Alden M. Wheeler, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, president; John M. Jeffries, Kappa Alpha, vice-president and treasurer; Joseph B. Kingsbury, Alpha Beta Phi, secretary. These officers will take their respective offices at the first meeting in November.

The Interfraternity Association is starting the fourth year of its useful existence. Henry Kruger, president of the association last year, presided at the opening meeting, and explained to the new delegates the purpose of the organization, which is to bring the fraternities of George Washington University closer together, and to promote student activities. This year, as before, the association will hold an interfraternity smoker and an interfraternity dance, both of which have always been among the most enjoyed of student events. In addition to this, the Association intends to promote interests in athletics by organizing an interfraternity basketball league or a bowling league, or both. A committee, consisting of Detlow M. Martinson, Theta Delta Chi; F. Wallace Stoeber, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Alden M. Wheeler, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was appointed to investigate basketball conditions. H. C. King, Sigma Chi, was appointed to investigate the prospects for a bowling league. The delegates were instructed to learn the wishes of their respective chapters in regard to interfraternity basketball and bowling, and to report at the next meeting, when action will be taken to start the organization of teams.

Professor McNemar, director of athletics, was introduced and proceeded to explain the athletic situation.

The fraternities represented at the first meeting were:

| Fraternity. | Delegate. |
|-----------------------------|------------------|
| Sigma Alpha Epsilon | Alden M. Wheeler |
| Sigma Phi Epsilon | Erwin Harsch |
| Sigma Chi | H. C. King |
| Theta Delta Chi | Detlow Martinson |
| Delta Tau Delta | R. Duval |

| Phi Sigma Kappa | F. W. Stoeber |
| Alpha Beta Phi | Joe B. Kingsbury |
| Phi Chi (Medical) | R. T. Haskell |
| Alpha Kappa Kappa (Medical) | A. W. Kenner |

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, November 11, at the Alpha Beta Phi house, 2022 F Street, immediately after the meeting of the Athletic Association.

The Society will make a trip of inspection and instruction through Heurich's Brewery on November 13, leaving the Arts and Science Building, 2023 G Street, N. W., promptly at 2:00 o'clock. The chemistry of brewing will be pointed out and discussed and everyone who goes on this trip is assured an enjoyable time with the chemists, and will learn something.

COLLEGE SOPHOMORES MEET.

An important business meeting of the Sophomore class of Columbian College was called for Wednesday, November 4, at 6:40 o'clock in the Assembly Hall, by President-of-the-class Duvall. The action was taken after a well-attended executive meeting held last Thursday at noon, where definite steps were taken to begin the class activities of the coming year.

At the business meeting these plans were made known to the class and its hearty co-operation was pledged in efforts to make this year a little better than those of the past.

At the executive meeting it was brought out that nearly all of the class were subscribers to the athletic association. Those who are not will be urged to help keep the sports in the college. A clock chart was suggested to show the progress made by the association.

WITH THE GREEKS.

Sigma Phi Epsilon gave a dance on Hallowe'en night at its Chapter House, in honor of its pledges, that exceeded all anticipations for a good time. It was the first formal dance of the year and was attended by a crowd that filled the house to its capacity. The decorations were in true Hallowe'en style, suggestive of witches and hobgoblins; the lights were low, and the general effect harmonized perfectly with the spirit of the occasion. The program was cleverly arranged, alternating the old favorites, the one-step and hesitation, with the more recent popular steps, the maxixe and fox trot. Toward the close of the dance, favors of the mirth-producing variety, such as ticklers, horns, and rolls of thin paper tape, were distributed, and these in the hands of the merry dancers furnished as a climax to an already lively evening a veritable carnival of fun.

Sigma Phi Epsilon has pledged Howard Ware, Law, '18.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon held their annual Hallowe'en dance at their home on Euclid Street. The chapter house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Preceding the dancing the merry gathering indulged in appropriate sports and pranks of Hallowe'en. About forty couples were in attendance and unanimously voted this the most enjoyable Hallowe'en evening they had ever spent.

Sigma Kappa announces the following pledges: Mary Newcombe, Helen Miles, Dorothy Sornborger, and Marian Brooks.

A Red Cross unit has been formed of the alumni and active chapters of the Sigma Kappa Sorority.

These chapters will also co-operate with the Columbian Women in raising funds for the Nellie Baynard Knapp Scholarship.

Mildred Planck, formerly of Columbian College, who is now teaching in Dallas, South Dakota, was given a birthday postal shower by Sigma Kappa and her other friends of George Washington University.

The Sigma Kappa Sorority has been presented with a portrait of one of its former patronesses, Mrs. Martin Knapp, who has recently died. The presentation was made by Judge Knapp.

The Chi Omega Sorority announces the following pledges: Theodosia D. Seibold, Mary Hotchkiss, Mildred Thomas, Elizabeth Paul, Florence Little, Marian Negley and Norma Bose.

Chi Omega entertained at a Hallowe'en luncheon in the chapter room on Saturday, October 31.

The Pi Beta Phi Sorority announces the following pledges: Phyllis Stewart, Ethel Paine, Mary Grabill, Edith Thomas, Margaret Schoenfeld and Ella Gardner.

Phi Chapter, Phi Chi Fraternity gave its annual Hallowe'en dance, Oct. 30, at Confederate Memorial Hall, 1123 Vermont Avenue. The dance, which was a masquerade, was attended by the active chapter, pledges, and a large number of alumni and faculty members. The costumes worn were both novel and attractive and some were rather amusing, ranging from convicts to pierrettes and Quaker maids. The hall was attractively decorated with autumn foliage, corn stalks and fall fruits. Music was furnished by Storch's Orchestra.

The Delta Tau Delta House was the scene of a highly enjoyable little gathering Hallowe'en night, when that fraternity opened a series of fall dances and entertainments with a combined reception and dance. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion.

shocks of corn, pumpkins carved and uncarved, gay streamers and varicolored lights carrying out the spirit of the evening. An Oriental booth furnished concealment for a fortune teller, under the mysteries of whose knowledge the guests learned of their past, present and future. About ten o'clock the orchestra arrived and the remainder of the evening was taken up with varied interpretations of the one-step, hesitation, fox trot, and maxixe. Refreshments were served during intermission. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. W. P. Borland, Mrs. F. L. Scribner, Mrs. C. M. Lynch and Mrs. G. H. Norris.

Alpha Beta Phi held a great big good old-fashioned Hallowe'en party last Saturday night. The house was tastefully decorated in autumn colors. Games and dancing were indulged in by everyone and enjoyed to the greatest extent. Mr. Gilman gave some very fine selections of music. Favors which amused everyone were distributed after the refreshments.

The chaperons were: Prof. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Coogan, Mr. and Mrs. Porter and Mrs. S. T. Walton. Those present were: Misses Ashley, Beavers, Becker, Ferguson, Garden, Frank, Gilbert, Gompers, Gossart, Harris, King, B. Kummer, G. Kummer, Morris, Salter, Sheriff, Sweet, Stearns, Stone and Wade, and Messrs. Breneman, Brooks, Burch, Burton, Cathcart, Craton, Delany, Doyle, Edwards, Fisher, Fleming, Gilman, Kingsburg, Kearney, Leonard, Magruder, Mehurin, Mehl, Middleton, Moringo, Mulligan, Sale, Seller, Snyder, Terry and Walton.

Theta Delta Chi held a Hallowe'en dance on Saturday night in honor of the Freshman delegation. The house was decorated in accordance with the spirit of the occasion and the refreshments tallied with the season. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Caywood, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Hodgkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lyman Newhauser were the chaperones of the evening.

The rushing season of Lambda Chapter, Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity, reached its climax Saturday evening, October 31, when a Hallowe'en dance was given at the Chapter House, 1717 S Street, to the pledge men. The house was bedecked with autumn leaves and roses, while roasted chestnuts, pumpkin pie, cider and apples kept busy the mouths of the merry-makers. This is the first dance of what will be a very "dancy" season for the Phi Sig, as there are plans for a dance at least every three weeks during the school season.

Phi Sigma Kappa announces the pledging of the following men: Herman Wiegand, Law '16, George Hearn Bacon, Law '17, Joseph Younglove Underwood, Law '16, Malcolm Austin Coleman, C. C. '18, Charles Sidney Forbes, C. C. '18, Norman Sheridan Meese, C. C. '17, George Carl Chamberlain, Medicine '18, and Showell Colburne Dennis, Ph. D. '17. The initiation is to be held on November 13.

CAMPFIRE SUPPER EATEN.

University Girls Take Hallowe'en Hike.

A more ideal evening for a hike could never have been found than that of Hallowe'en. Twenty-one girls left the University at seven o'clock. They went up Twentieth Street to Connecticut Avenue, and thence out to Cleveland Park. They were met along the way by six or seven girls who lived in the vicinity of the route. The air was crisp and cool, just warm enough for sweaters, and the harvest moon was at its height.

The spot selected for supper was that used by the Camp Fire Girls of Cleveland Park; the use of this place was obtained by Margaret Schoenfeld and Priscilla Parsons, members of the Freshman Class, whose assistance did much to make the affair a success.

Four former professors of the school were present at the sessions of the American Bar Association, held here recently; two in their official capacities, as law school deans, William R. Vance, dean of the University of Minnesota Law School, and Henry Craig Jones, dean of the West Virginia University Law School. Professors Lorenzen and Thurston of Minnesota, the former, one-time dean of our law school, were also present as delegates to the Committee on Legal Education.

A large proportion of the members of the second and third year classes were present at the smoker given by the Phi Delta Phi Fraternity at the University Club, last Friday evening, and as a result there were few recitations at the Saturday classes. However, as several of the professors were also present all failures were "liberally construed."

MEDICAL SCHOOL.

Dr. E. D. Supplee, '14, has been appointed to succeed Dr. R. L. de Saussure, '13, as Resident Physician at the University Hospital. Dr. de Saussure has given up his hospital position in order that he may return to South Carolina, his home state, to practice. Since his graduation, Dr. Supplee has been connected with the hospital in the capacity of Intern. In the recent District Board Examination only one other man received a higher percentage than Dr. Supplee.

A. H. McCray was recently appointed Student Intern at the University Hospital.

R. H. Davis, '17, was operated on at the University Hospital, Oct. 29. He is reported as doing very nicely at present.

All the medical classes were guests at a Hallowe'en dance given by the nurses at the Home, Oct. 31.

Dr. C. N. Chipman is giving a series of lectures to the students of the junior and senior classes on the subject, "Anaesthesia."

Macon and Murphy of the Junior Class are fully qualified as war correspondents. Dr. Bovee says that they obtain "all the latest news from the front."

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE.

M. Alvord Gore, A. B., 1914, who is now registered in the Medical School of the Johns Hopkins University, was a visitor at the University last week.

The Pin Committee of the Senior Class has been appointed and reports that it expects to have the class pins distributed before the Christmas holidays.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

A short business meeting of the Engineering Society was held Wednesday evening, at 6:45 p. m., in the Physics Lecture Room. A special invitation had been extended to all engineering students and especially new ones to attend this meeting and join the society. Dean Hodgkins in his pleasing semi-humorous way addressed the Society.
